

breakfast alone. I was fixing my corsets. Mabel worked splendid till Sunday night then she got ugly tempered & so she would not do anything here. I da went down to Gemallen. I da got some more gem taken & 8 for 2500's & 1000's dals.
I got dinner all alone. Then we were just going up the Mountain when we met Emma. She got sick & did not like us to go but we had to go. I went up to Queen's street & we walked all around & I got ground then it started to rain so we slid down sailing had splendid time.
We went down to Wallis's place. Sunday 9th I got ready & went down to Wallis for dinner. Mabel & I Mabel had a awful fall because her mother said she could not go so I da stayed instead. Then we had the little express wagon to take the fruit with which Sarah did for Emma when she was away on boat we took about
