

January

THURSDAY, 28

(28-338)

1904

8° below zero. Cut till 11:30 loaded first load for this week 6 spiles Took 'em in afternoon.

I put a hook on cant hook & put on a door knob

Snowed 5 in Today

FRIDAY, 29

(29-337)

1 load of spiles morning
loaded for morning Takes  $4\frac{1}{2}$  hrs to make round trips.

10 below zero.

Snowed a little.

George says there was one fox moved at Clemens,
& two at quarry, while I saw a track on Jordan Bay.

SATURDAY, 30

(30-336)

More snow

Two loads spiles to Cement Works
I tried to get a shot at a fox in swamp ahead of Cross' dog, but it kept under cover till 2 pm when dog left it. Several foxes still about.
When snow is as heavy as now, foxes like to circle in the thickest place they can get, the dog can only walk, so that they have the best of it.