

May,

WEDNESDAY, 15,

1872.

Pleasant and clear i heard a Bee. nobody of them. No Jute Carlvine Willson came up in the evening John Bryon Washburn

THURSDAY, 16,

Bright and pleasant
William James was plowing i was diggin in the Jute Carlvine
and office went up to Mother's

FRIDAY, 17,

Bright and clear William James was plowing here Carlvine
Wilson went home
{this is a day gone {heard}

May,

SATURDAY, 18,

1872.

Bright and clear
William James was home Robert Tate and his men was plowing with two teams William James harrowed in oats

SUNDAY, 19,

Dark and raining
Swiftly all day Long clouds came down in the forenoon

MONDAY, 20,

Beautiful Day after the Rain i went over to William Pierce in the morning Carl was there when i came back i took Pierce's Steer to the pound