

Thursday February 9, 1922.

Kent delivered to the Bay and around the Lionline and took an extra buggy with him down to Mc Laren's to be repaired.

and I delivered on the Club part

In the afternoon we hitched up Jerry and Oly to the waggon and Kent drove them out and Oly tried to run away and he had hard work to hold her.

Mr Cudney and Dozon finished hauling out logs for Harry Smith this afternoon.

The day was cloudy and thawed a little.

Friday February 10, 1922.

I delivered mail on the Bay part and took the mail waggon down to Mc Laren's to have the curtains put on, ~~the~~ curtains &c, and Kent took the balance of the poultry.

In the middle of the afternoon we hitched up Oly and Jerry and drove as far as J. A. Robinson's and got the oil can filled.

The day was fine and it thawed considerably.
