

October, 1929

21 Monday. Dreary dull day. Rained tonight. Walter Adler went to Kitchener today and Vernon plowed. Walter did the house work. Mr. & Mrs. Silas Bauman and son Howard of Columbiana, Ohio called on us today.

22 Tuesday. Fierce gale blowing and rained all day. Walter spent the evening at Earl's listening to Sinclair's speech over the radio.

23 Wednesday. Drizzly day. Peter Schmehl took some fat hogs to Elmira for Walter today.

24 Thursday. First snow. Snowflurries all day. Not very cold. The two Walters went to Elmira this morning and dressed a cattle beast at Enoch Schreider's this afternoon. Vernon was plowing.
