Who is it that forges the road he came
And goes home by the town line generally
Then he and the Chief walk across the fields
Why Henry.

Who is it that drives to Aurora sometimes
With his niece and the lady beguines
And kept very mum but smiled all the while
Why John.

Who is it plays the Irishman
And his part always takes the best
And would like to trade homes with Emerson.

Who is it that goes to Cooktown no more
Came home hungry and went down cellar
And drank
A pan of new milk, and ate a whole loaf of bread
Why Frank.
