

January, 1932

1 Friday. Fierce gales blowing with rain and sleet. The telephone is out of order and the power was off most of the day. We were supposed to go to Kitchener today for a turkey dinner at Frank's bakery. Arletta's girl, Miriam Hanneman sent a 22 lb. turkey from Alaska for us all but owing to the weather we weren't able to go. Uernow spent the afternoon at Stanges and Ella & Walter spent the afternoon peacefully sleeping the sleep of the just.

2 Saturday. Cloudy & quite mild. Walter went to Elmira & Floradale this morning. Ezra Maurer brought a pig to kill and wash for dinner. Miriam, Wilfrid, Carol & Glen visited us this afternoon and brought us some turkey. Emerson Stange spent the evening with Uernow.
