

August, 1928.

1 Wednesday. Fine warm day.

The men were hoeing turnips.

Mrs. Louie Miller and Mrs. Margaret Crowe of Monroe, Wisconsin visited Ella today and were here for tea.

2 Thursday. Hot & sultry. Thunderstorms and rain tonight. Walter shipped hogs today. Ella went berry-picking in Louie Miller's bush with Edna Miller. Caller brought Harvey Schmidt, Dr. & Mrs. Enos Schneiders and Eva.

3 Friday. Sultry & threatening heavy shower tonight. The men hoed turnips this a.m. and drew some wood into the woodshed this p.m. Ella was canning raspberries and blueberries.

Miniam Maurer and Wilfrid Underwood were married this evening by Rev. Becker.

4 Saturday. Thunderstorms all day.

The men brought in the rest of the wood. Charles Hilliard came up for tea.
