

October, 1925.

26 Monday. Fine morning. Snowed all afternoon. The men were plowing. Ella was canning pears.

27 Tuesday. Snowflurries. Ella did her washing & ironing. The men plowed. Walter helped to saw wood at Earl Millers this afternoon.

28 Wednesday. Snowing & storming. The men were plowing. Edith & Irene Speer called on Ella. Walter & Ella went to the Literary at Sen. Weaver's tonight and got stuck in the snow in their lanes coming back.

29 Thursday. Cold. Snowflurries. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira this morning, had his dinner at Art. Kinck's went over to Floradale to vote and got home after 6 p.m. Dominion Elections today. The Liberals were defeated and Mr. Meighew will be the new Prime Minister.