

March, 1928

1 Thursday. Cold & stormy.

Norman Snyder shipped hogs for Walter at Elmira today. Walter is still in bed and seems worse than ever today.

Harvey Reist is helping Vernon with the chores.

2 Friday. Cold & stormy. We saw some crows this morning. Walter feels somewhat better. Harvey took a load of chopping to Floradale this p.m.

3 Saturday. Cold & stormy.

Walter got up today at noon but feels quite weak. Harvey went home tonight.

4 Sunday. Fierce blizzard.

Worst storm of the winter. No church

5 Monday. Cold & stormy. Vernon

is doing the chores again. <sup>service at Wald</sup>

6 Tuesday. Fine day. Ella did the washing. Mr. & Mrs. Lincoln Weaver, Doris, Howard & Lila visited us today and were here for tea. Harvey Reist took a load of chopping to Floradale and was here for tea too. Mrs. Emanuel Bowman died tonight at Floradale.
