WEDNESDAY 4

1874

Had a visit today from Walter Baldock and his sister & Mary Campbell, Alex's daughter - The wedding folks and Vinny went to Toronto on evening train. Went with W M Choir to a honey social on 24th line West this evening. Speaking by Revs J G Scott and Sherlock, a crowded house and plenty of honey. The choir were highly praised.

THURSDAY 5

Was hauling the soft-wood from "other place" bush, have 5 cords. This completes the job of drawing wood for the present. Spent the evening at writing up the minutes of the Peel Co Lodge. Edwin Dixon of Amaranth staid here all last night and started for home this morning.

The principal occupation just now is thrashing with the flail and it all day on the peas & with considerable effect. Spent evening at Edmonton Temple in Ebenezer Church. Initiated and quite a lively meeting. B B Golding from Brampton was present. A very stormy evening.

SATURDAY 7

Swinging the flail on timothy and orchard grass for to get the seed pounded out, very slow work about 2 bush a day. First calf of this season came yesterday from "White Rose". Nearly a foot of snow came last night. The weather is moderate. At home writing all evening.
