

January, 1925.

17 Saturday. Fine, clear day.

Lincoln, Willard and Mildred Weaver visited us this forenoon. Aubrey Lawson was here for dinner. Solomon Snigrich and son called this p.m. Cornelius and Dick went to Elmira tonight.

18 Sunday. Snowing & storming.

Ella & Vernon drove to church & S. School with Enoch's in the big sleigh. Walter has a severe cold. Emerson, Addie, Marie & Ella were here for tea.

19 Monday. Clear and cold. Walter spent the day in the rocker beside the stove as he feels tough. Ella washed her dining room curtains. Ed. Bolander called.

20 Tuesday. Changeable weather started to storm something fierce this p.m. Walter spent the day in bed. Ella did her washing.

21 Wednesday. Fine day. Walter feels somewhat better. Emerson Stickney called on Walter and bought a calf from him.
