

Narcoossee a small place supposed to be a clique lives here. all tall men. we never saw a soul
as we went through,
then on to Belardo about 190 miles of drive and we never took our fish lines out of the car got home about 3 P.M.

Jan 16th. Had a thunder shower last evening rained pretty hard. and is still cloudy this A.M. went through a Canning factory with Mr. Dickson. down near the Railway station they were canning Grape fruit. must have been 200 women working. mostly niggers. they were paying 85 cts a crate for fruit grape fruit, and are trying to get the farmers to grow them green Beans we offering 2 1/2 ct lbs went from there to the Stock Exchange it was all Dutch to me.

getting cool this evening Jan 17th. a little cool this A.M. but soon warmed up. drove down town shopping. saw an Centaur car. the owner came from Fort Erie.

Jan 18th. warm & windy this A.M. got car greased and oil changed. went down town to the Bank. got caught in a rain storm and it is still raining hard this afternoon and
day
