

December, 1929.

5 Thursday. Cloudy and milder. Walter was butchering at Otto Miller's today. Vernon and Harvey finished Schmidt's woodcutting and started at Leon Wagner's. Ella and Mrs. Enoch Schneider were up at Jim Weaver's again this afternoon helping to quilt. Irvin took them up and Vernon got them tonight.

6 Friday. Milder & foggy. Walter went to Alma this morning and to Floradale this afternoon. Vernon & Harvey cut wood in Leon's bush. Tonight Vernon and Ella drove to Elmira to attend the High School Concert and Commencement held in the Regent Theatre. We had an accident on the way home when the horse kicked and broke the shaft we had borrowed from Enoch Schneider. Ella drove home with Noah and the girls and Vernon led home the gallant steed.
