This copy is provided for the purpose of individual research only. Responsibility regarding copyright arising from the use of this copy is assumed by the recipient. Further reproduction deposit in any other institution cannot be made without the written consent of the University Archivist.

1857

Jan 18 Went to the funaral of Robert Roberson he died on the 16 th instant there was 34 sloughs & cutters at the funaral he was buried in the Brockville cemetery very cold day

19 drew some wood very cold day he did not get his grist

20 Jack went to Greenbush Mill With 24 Bushel of wheat

21 went to Brockville to an Agricultural meeting very stormy

22 drew some wood very cold day

23 Jack went to Greenbush for his grist he got his cheeks frozen it was a very cold day & worked at the Slaugh for John Younge

24 we went to Lyn to the Annual Meeting of the Agricultural Society Jack & Margret & Jane R Colms. A died to floor A part of the cheese place & he received A note for seventy five pounds paible in three months with interest

25 no. meeting to Day

26 cut down five oaks some of them for hubs

27 drew up the hub stuff & 3 logs of the big tree 2 of them 14 feet long stormy day A thaw

28 thrashed 1000 sheafs of spring wheat Jack went to Seelys with 4 hubs logs this no on

29 went to Johns youngs with Ellen Margret & Jack on A visit fine Day

30 cleaned the wheat had 35 Bushel

31 drew 2 load of wood very stormy Snowed very heavy all Day

the boys took A saw to Wm Tennents boar