

seem like very first class feed for them but maybe it won't hurt them. I spent most of the forenoon doing chores but went out about eleven and opened some ditches for Dad and then came up and dug the dabbles. This afternoon I chored around and cleared up the dabbles tops and set the roots in a crate and went out and dug a few potatoes, besides doing a few other odd jobs. Mary went down town this afternoon and to night feels tough with a head ache. Much milder to day, sunny this morning, turning cloudy.

Thursday November 17th

We got a good early start this morning and Dad got a good days ploughing in. I did up the chores this morning and then went out and dug all the potatoes I could carry up in a bag and a pail. I couldn't dig any and leave them out there on account of the cows. There are a lot of nice ones out there but in places it is too wet to dig them and I am afraid they will rot. I didn't do any thing much this afternoon but chored as it drizzled and rained most of the afternoon. Mary went down town this afternoon and I went down later and we had tea at Aunt's. I was late for tea, as just about dark. Schyler brought two fellows in to buy sheep. It is so long since we have seen any one on an errand of that kind that I felt very rejoiced and sold them eight sheep at $10 apiece. The fellow was Deeth of the Dyncicate Farm at Sincor. He wants them bred and I am to deliver them in a month. The price is low compared to former years but is away ahead of butchers which is 3 to per pound. To night I went with Aunt, Aunt Alice & Mary to the Bible Class. It was very interesting. Cousin Willie was there and he & Mr. Cornish held a long discussion after words concerning various points of belief which was also entertaining.

Friday November 18th

I got Dad's team harnessed for him before breakfast this morning but it started to rain soon after so he couldn't do any thing at the ploughing all day. We just did chores and odd jobs all day. We cleaned up a few oats this morning but didn't get at it this afternoon. Jim was sick in bed all day, and Dad
