Abstract of letter from Dr. José de la Vega—Concluded.
ing it in several other cases of anemia and in which I have obtained similar results. My opinion of this preparation is that it may be considered as a specific for anemia in whatever form, as it does not cause the least disturbance, especially constipation, which is so habitual with all ferruginous preparations. It is perfectly absorbed as its assimilation is easy, the metals thus almost instantly passing into the blood, and there is no change of any kind"
