

This afternoon Dad finished cutting the seed and Mary and I picked up the potatoes that were dug. Mrs. Perry & Jessie Patterson were over to see Mary this afternoon but didn't. Mr. Johnson the horse enthusiast was also in to have a look at price. We were entertaining faint hopes that she might raise us another colt and Mr. Johnson was as anxious to see it as a antler as we were as he admires Joe's build so much. but it is beginning to look now as if our hopes were vain.
Cousin Mary and I went down to the reception for Mrs. Mrs. Cornish to night. The Sunday school was full & over of course. Cousin Willie was chairman and he, Mr. Barwell, 'ot Markin, Dr. Cook, Ed Smith, W. J. Simpson & Sam Morris all made rather silly speeches, the flattery of which must have made Mr. Cornish feel queer. he replied to them and didn't seem to be enjoying him self much.
Then we had coffee & cake. Mary and I took Mrs.
Wood to the office and after was Dick Tibbitts brought us home in his car. Mr. James warth invited him self to sing and Molly & Doc & Mrs.
James also sang according to pre arrangement though

Wednesday October 26th Dad went down this morning and took Sid to school then went on down to say good-bye to Aunty Alice who left in the nine o'clock car for Hamilton to stay for a couple of days with Cousin Clara Herring. Enah brought Aunty over here tonight to stay till Aunty Alice gets home. I raked up the clover seed that was cut first this year and this afternoon we binched it and hauled one load in. It cleared about half the part that was raked up. Dad had a lot of trouble this morning with a couple of yearlings that got through some way into the corn. he got them out of that but couldn't drive them into the gully or the lane. This afternoon they were in the corn again and about one o'clock disappeared and we don't know where they are but think they are over at Dick's. This afternoon Billy & George got into the wheat and Dad went over to get them out. George attempted to jump the leached wire caught on the top and threw himself scratching his breast quite badly and breaking the fence but Dad said he wasn't really hurt much. Caliban
