JANUARY MONDAY 15 (15-350) 1923

warmer with snow flurries I did some writing in the forenoon and pumped up the pressure I put up some hens next in the afternoon over to Office in the evening late when stage came in tonight. Henry went home on stage this morning

TUESDAY 16 (16-349)

blustry day around the house all day feeling very poorly I went over to Office for a while tonight very cold night.

JANUARY WEDNESDAY 17 (17-348) 1923

fine day but very cold around home and post Office it started to snow tonight I received Timmins & Hendry mail order for groceries today it started to snow and blow tonight

THURSDAY 18 (18-347)

snowed and blowed all day around home the Kingston stage stayed over at Joyceville tonight very wild we went to bed early.