

Tuesday Oct. 25, 1921.

Mabel delivered mail with the car and went down to Pain Court in the afternoon and took home 5 ^{3/4} bags of potatoes at $1.90 a bag $10.13
I made up Missionary books &c.
The day was fine but rather cold.
and the roads are good.

Wednesday Oct. 26, 1921.

Mabel delivered mail with the car and took me down to Carlo to see the ditchers in the evening.
The day was fine and roads good

Thursday Oct. 27, 1921.

Mabel started before car mail time and went to Pain Court for two more bags of potatoes and then delivered mail on the whole route with the car.
I noticed that Dick was badly sweetened and I sent for Dr. Harile &c.
The day was rather fine but rained a little in the evening.
The roads are good.
