

W. Pic Henry, Webster to thrash with the horses
I sent James & Jack, younger people went down with our Wagon the roads is quite bare made a door for the house ~~for~~ storing most of the hay

He began to draw wood from Crister & thrashed oats hand frost went to the school house & heard the Rev. Mr.
Brown in the forenoon at the New ^{in the afternoon} Corral at the Church
I drew wood & thrashed oats

20 20 20 20
21 22 23 I fixed a boat of 3 cables 24 25 26 I cabbled shoes rain

I sent five dollars to James younger for him to buy Sale leather for me

27 He drew 2 loads of wood from Crister & fixed a chair & made staples & hook for the door 28 He drew some wood at home I went to Wm Johnston & got shoes on wat cutter & gave him two dollar he charged 8.9 for it 29 A. Elen & Zabelle went to Yang, Wat & his wife ^{went} away this afternoon fire day

25 no meeting to day young Tennant & W. G. Lachlan came here in a Buggy fire day warm

26 I hatched out a Slaughter creek box & Elen came this afternoon & brought seven sheep from ^{more} ^{one load of wood} 27 I must have lands he had on shores ^{more} ^{one load of wood}

28 I worked at the slough, snowed in the forenoon I drew I worked at the wood for slaughter went to a tea meeting in our school house it is for missionary purpose the Rev. W. G. Lachlan, W. L. G.
Mart & a reformed Roman Catholic spoke 29 I worked most of the day, worked at the slough

30 I worked most of the day
31 I went to counters & got Rods being to draw rails
I came home from Godrich David & Jack's that day

This copy is provided for the purpose of individual research only. All responsibility for redressing copyright is the responsibility of the user. Further reproduction or deposit in any other institution may be made without the written consent of the University Archivist.