

May, 1926

5 Wednesday. Cloudy & drizzly Ella dug around some of the perennials today, also did her ironing. The men worked at the fence. Walter's callers - George Snider, Irvin Shoemaker and Solomon Seigfried's son.

6 Thursday. ^{The part of the snowbank in the garden} ^{disappeared today}
Fine warm day.
Walter & Vernon went to Elmira this morning and were making fence this afternoon. Ella cleaned the upstairs today. Tonight after supper we went over to Addison Peets.

7 Friday. Very warm. The men were building fence. Ella dug part of the garden and sowed parsley, peas radishes, lettuce, beets carrots & onions Willard Weaver was here for tea.

8 Saturday. Very warm. Turned cool this afternoon. The men were at the fence this a.m. and picked stones this p.m.
Walter took off the storm windows and doors. Mr. & Mrs. Dim. Weaver and Menna Horst visited us tonight
Vernon helped Peets take cattle to Elmira