

Each went down town in the after-noon and Dad and I worked at getting board from the roof of the old stable and started to fix up the chicken house. Aunty came over to night with Dick. This evening Frank and I went down to the Presbyterian concert in the hall and had a pretty good time. They had a great bunch of little kids in the thing. We got home about ten. Dad went over to Martins' this morning to see how they were going to vote on the school question. It has been a rotten day. It sleeted this morning and made everything slippery and was cloudy and without cold and rotten ^{the rest of the day}.

Friday December 22nd

We killed and plucked the turkey this morning. Louise came and stayed till the middle of the after-noon. Dad cut up the other pig and Aunty went down town to meet Roy but he did not come so he won't be here at all this Christmas as he is going south. Dad took the sheets off the stable roof. Aunty, Each and Louise went down town this aft. and Aunty & Louise did not come back. I slept most of the after-noon. Frank got home early.

I was going down to school this after-noon but it was a miserable day wet and foggy.

Saturday December 23rd
 Sawn wood and did chores all morning. Paddy Dick and Frank went down town and Dick did not come back to dinner. Frank and I went down this after-noon and fell in with Dick and Aunt and we all went up to buy Christmas presents. Then we went over to the church and Sunday school where Aunty was making wreaths for decoration. Frank and I hung around all after-noon, and came home with Dick at night. Dad had to go to a school board meeting to night and the boys went with him. Each and I made chocolate fudge. Another dark damp day freezing a little to night.

Sunday December 24th

We boys went down to Sunday school and Dad and Each came to church. Frank and I went down after church and had a look at the parrot they are packing down at the beach. Aunty came home with us to dinner.
