

May, 1929

21 Tuesday. Fair. Walter was sowing and Vernon was rolling and cultivating and they finished that big field. Ella did the washing this morning and worked in the garden this afternoon and sowed over a dozen kinds of flower seeds, both annual and perennial. Earl and Ella spent the evening here.

22 Wednesday. Fine day. The men were gang plowing. Ella cleaned the little parlor. Walter went to singing school with Eph. Snyder, Mr. Drimie and Ezra. They called tonight.

23 Thursday. Drizzly all day. Rained hard tonight. The men were plowing & sowing. Mrs. Enoch Schneider visited Ella this afternoon. We were at a surprise party for Alice Reisel tonight. There folk were there - Mr. & Mrs. Sam Bird, Ronald, Norma & Donald, Mrs. Ges. Bolender, Laudwell, Alice & Kulta, Mrs. & Mrs. Iwin Reisel & Pauline, Mrs. J. Stewart & Alma, Mrs. & Mrs. Norman Snyder, & Charles Miller.