

took a snap of the sign stating it was 2140 feet elevation going to start down grade now. lots of snow and ice up here on to Tioga. along the Tioga River. crossed an old covered wooden bridge here - crossed into New York state at Lawrenceville. Bot a film at Blossburg took a snap of icicles near there. on to Painted Post. to Bath for dinner & 12's took snap of Tourist Hall in Bath from the park. on to Cohocton to Wayland then West to Dansville hold to Mount Morris very hilly, all along here. also lots of snow in the ditches some places drifts across the highway. from Mt. Morris to Warsaw. worst hills on all our trip. big sign (electric) across the road warning to go down in second gear. the highway turned & twisted every way going down to Warsaw in the bottom then miles of it up the other side again took a snap of the children in a snow bank weather very cold here went on West to East Aurora. where we stayed for the night it is a dirty old place. as dead as a door nail. the streets and sidewalks all ice and snow.
