

January, 1927

4 Tuesday. Quite mild.

Snowed all day. Walter was away butchering at Jos. Gengrich's all day. Vernon took a load of grist to Addison Reisto and got it chopped. Mrs. Conrad Schwindt died at Elmira today.

5 Wednesday. Colder. Snowing and blowing. Walter visited Farncombe and Edlers this p.m. Ella visited Mrs. Elmo King and Walter & Ella were both there for tea.

6 Thursday. Very stormy. Walter went to Elmira this morning. Ezra Maurer brought 4 pigs home for him and was here for dinner.

7 Friday. Clear and very cold. 10 below zero this morning. We butchered a pig for ourselves today. Noah Miller helped this forenoon and was here for dinner. Clarence and Lloyd Farncombe called on Walter this p.m. Mrs. Schwindt was buried this afternoon.