

April, 1927.

16 Saturday. Mild. Some showers. Vernon was cultivating. Walter harrowed the garden. After supper we went over to King's to see the new baby and up to Henderson's store.

17 Sunday. Easter Sunday. Fine warm day. We went to practice this morning, to D. School and church this p.m. and to the Easter entertainment tonight. Mr. & Mrs. Israel Shoemaker and family and Mr. & Mrs. Norman Snyder called here this afternoon.

18 Monday. Very warm & windy. Vernon was cultivating this morning. This p.m. he was plowing and Walter harrowed. Ella dug around the perennials and planted some sweet-cherry trees. Vernon went to a party at Edmund Schwinde's tonight.
