

Dec. 27.

Thursday 27.

Very mild day. Thawed quite deep. Looked like rain all day. The washed and they got nearly dry. I have ironed some. No one came and no one went away. Mother is not feeling very well.

Dec. 28.

Friday 28.

Grand day. I went to town this morning to get my teeth treated. Then Grand and Mother went to Oylmes after dinner and got some medicine for Mother. Bill Bates and Madge were here for tea and Grand went for them and Mad has taken them home.

Dec. 29.

Saturday 29

As the day progressed the cold strengthened. The wind became quite strong. There were snow flurries all afternoon and evening. Maude went to the dentist this morning. Melba did a washing. Melba went to the dentist this afternoon.