

Thur Nov 23. Fine and milder. ploughs are still going.

Fri Nov 24. Fine and colder. squalls of snow in the evening.

Sat Nov 25. Fine and very cold. north wind. Annie here in the evening. Mrs. Davidson and the children been away since Friday.

Sun Nov 26. Fine at first and quite cold. Auntie and I at church. Mr. preached from. - - . It started to snow at noon very fine and then cleared and fine I went to evening church. Annie here in eve.

Mon Nov 27. Snowed last night and all covered over quite a lot. then cleared and fine. but wet & slushy.

Tue Nov 28. Fine bright and moderately cold a perfect day. Auntie and I at the "Royal Winter Fair"

Wed Nov 29. Fine and moderately cold. started to knit scarf.

Thur Nov 30. Fair at first then a light shower in the afternoon. Mrs. Kane and Bert here. brought a roast of pork and beans. very dirty. putting gravel on.

Fri Dec 1. Fine but quite muddy. a terrific wind. a cold. Willis thrashing untill noon then had to stop for wind.

Sat Dec 2. Fine bright day all quite dry and clear. I have a cold and sore throat. also Auntie. Willis finished thrashing at noon. finished Marys Scarf. it took Seven (two ounce) skins at 25 cents a skin $ 1.75.
Mrs Cox called.