

raspberries put out. Dad got a load of rails, we intended if we had had time to have gone back and harrowed a little this afternoon. Wags has started chipping. Frank and Dick had tea at Stubby's to night, as they are going to a show in the town hall. Jonas came over to night to pay Dad for what he owed him on the hay and got some apples. One of the hen turkeys died during the night. When Dad went out to feed the calves to night he gave Frank's runt a big feed of milk and when he returned he found the poor pig dead at the back of its pen. Lovely sunny day quite hot.

Thursday April 17th

Dad started to work on the field this side of the gully on the east side of the lane with Joe & Elinger. He harrowed all morning. I went back with him but just as we got back I noticed the colts out. I went back to put them in. Liz my ^{big} ^{mother} took to help me but as she chased them way over to the side road I shutter up in the stable I managed to get them back into the barn yard through the lane. While I was after them Taurus & all the calves got out and I chased them for about an hour but a last had to shut them up just where they were. some of them in the calves field, John in the plum orchard and left Jim out on the road. I then planted out the raspberries and Dad put the calves in when he come up. This afternoon Auntie come over for a few minutes Dad took the dishes back and dished what he harrowed this morning, some of the land is a little too wet to work yet. I did chores and cleaned up my barn with some stuff of Quint's which Auntie brought over, its what they use down on the "Digibant" and is great stuff. To night I went down to hand practice Ray, Dall, Walt's John Smith who the only others there. To ad. went down with me and got the baby carriage which Mrs. Johnston sent to Enob. He come home with Dick who hasn't been working all the afternoon. We went down to Stubby's for a while after practice Auntie Maude came home to night. None of us expected her. It has been a lovely day, sunny & hot.

Friday April 18th

Dad & I worked on the land all day. I dished with Belle & Harry and Dad harrowed with the little team. We are just working up half the field and are going to try to get it in to morrow afternoon. Enob took Tidums down town this afternoon in his fancy carriage. Auntie & Win came over to night, but Win had to go back after tea. Dick went home with her. Very warm, thunder & lightning after tea but no rain.
