

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1870.

I went out to the
grist mill this forenoon with some wheat
found the roads very
bad. When going out I met Henshels Holmes and Aunt
Mariah but did not get home in time to see them. Mary Jane came home
with me to night.

Had an offer of ninety five cents per bushel for our last load of wheat and think I will take
it. Cleared it through to night alone.

I have omitted reading the scriptures to day, owing to my illness but it shall be read tomorrow.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1870.

I went out to Dover this morning
with our last load
of wheat. Got it for ninety five cents.
Succeeded in getting a little money to
day. The first in some time.

It turns out,
after all, that the
news which I heard
of my brother-in-law's intending to take
make gas with us
false, or so says
my sister and Aunt Joo. So much for mischief and kiss. I do not feel much nor at all concerned because God
will direct my path
accord to His word.
