

9th A great change in the weather [Geeat?] coats wanted this morning And a fire in my stove, also a brick under my feet. _ _ _

17_ William Valentine died aged 84 years Buried the 19, at the Semetry [sic] at Picton, *

6_ Rachel Sills here to spend the day with her Mother, also Lydia, continued cold yet, a fire in my Stove, a brick under my feet, mufflers on my wrist, _ _

* The meeting held at the Methodist meeting house, James M [Lauling?] had a great Sermon for the inhabitants, _

[pg 19b]
1890 7^{mo} 20th First day our folks gone to Wellington, to attend a four oclock [sic] meeting appointed by James M Laughin. _ _ _

_21st James M Laughlin & two other friends took dinner & tea with us, then went on to Picton to have a meeting in the Methodist meeting-house, Levi takeing [sic] them down. _ _ _

23rd I was up to John Williams [sic] to spend the day to meet James M Laughlin & two women friends from the States, had quite a nice visit, _

24_ Carrie up to J Williams [sic] picking berries, _ Stanley & Rachel here in the