

MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 1870.

We cleared up some
cloverland this forenoon, instead of having two bushels as I expected
there will be four.

Mother and I went out to Dover this afternoon to make a visit at Lonsigns. I went down to the Silver Lake for a skate about four and was unexpectedly favoured with Miss Kearse Scotts Company.
Of course I enjoyed it.

Attended the Providence meeting to night.
We had one the Devotional. Rev. George Harrison, John Wakefield
and Rev. James Harris.
The speeches were excellent and the meeting quite a success.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1870.

It snowed all
of last night and most of the past day, but ~~most of the past day~~ this afternoon we cut wood again.

I went over to the meeting to night at the church. There was an excellent influence and my own
soul with many others was blessed. Oh! there are sinners coming home to Jesus. How delightful to see them
gleaning from threshings. It makes my soul so glad. Good,
surely Thine arms is not shortened that Thou canst not save
for still thou savest
sinners.
