

Sophia, Margaret and I stayed at home.
In the afternoon we went out for a sail.
Then Dr. Wesley (of Toronto) came over to give Dorothy her inoculation and bandaged up her foot (sprained the tendons and must-wear a support - all summer.) Spent evening quietly reading and finished "The Charming Cross Mystery" by J. S. Fletcher.
Charles, Jack, Nell, Dory and Frances went for a walk in the afternoon up the "Mountain". I went a very short distance up the path in the wood. Colder at night.

July 23rd Monday
Lucky day - Colder - her boat - to Port-Sandfield in the morning to buy provisions of the supply boat, came home, had lunch and all went to Port-Carling in the afternoon.
Did some shopping (I waited in the ice cream parlor) had ice cream, came home and I wrote letters to Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Beattie and cards to Mrs. McEggs and Mrs. Ryan. Clara, Dory, Frances & Margaret
