

August, 1930.

25 Monday. Threatening. Showers of rain before tea-time. Walter & Ella did the washing. The boys plowed all day.

26 Tuesday. Fair and hot. Walter & Willard went to Toronto with Noah Miller's today. Vernon was plowing. We had a fish pedlar here for dinner and Uncle Jake Maurer and Harvey were here for tea. Annie Schneider spent the afternoon with Ella & Mabel.

28 ~~Wednesday~~ ^{Thursday} Threatening. A few sprinkles of rain fell tonight. Walter & Vernon helped to thresh at Noah Miller's this forenoon. They moved the machine over here and threshed about 4 hrs. Our help - Frank Fairweather & Aowdwan, Noah Miller, Sonny Watts, Enoch & Irvin Schneider, Sam Horst, Paul Buckler and Herman Ziegler.
