

Camden Gore January 1884

Tue Jan 22nd cloudy and more moderate, I and John was rails and wood from over the river. Anne has the fever again.

Wed Jan 23rd cloudy and snow most of the day we was drawing wood and rails from over the river again to day.

Thu Jan 24th cloudy part of the day and very cold. I was thrashing out peas. John took Catharine Brock home. Anne a little better. Dr Richard has the diphtheria.

Fri Jan 25th clear fore part of the day. latter part cloudy. was thrashing out peas this fore noon. after noon John and I wear over the river drawing fence blocks and wood.

Sat Jan 26th clear and pleasant. cleaning up peas in the fore noon. after noon drawing rails and wood from over the river.

Sun Jan 27th cloudy and moderate

Mon Jan 28th cloudy and not quite so cold. Anne worse I went for the Dr not doing much else to day.

Tue Jan 29th cloudy and soft. took a load of barley and peas to Florence Mill and got chapt. Anne no better had a very bad time of it last night not much better to day.

Camden Gore December 1884

Wed Jan 30th a cloudy rainy foggy day. doing but little to day. went down to David Brock's, the Grange Suply agent was there. I orderd some groceries. Anne not much better.

Thu Jan 31st cloudy and cool. John and I was sawing stove wood. Anne worse this evening.

Fri Feb 1st cloudy and cool. cutting stove wood part of the day. Anne not much better.

Sat Feb 2nd cloudy and soft. some snow last night. sawing wood part of the day. Anne has the fever again this after noon.

Sun Feb 3rd cloudy and moderate

Mon Feb 4th cloudy and cool. attended the Quarterley board this after noon.

Tue Feb 5th cloudy and soft rain last night and this morning. the snow pretty much gone this evening. went for the Dr again this after noon for Anne. She is very sick.

Wed Feb 6th cloudy and moderate not doing much to day. Benjamin Tiffin and wife was here to see Anne who is still quite sick.

Thu Feb 7th cloudy fore part of the day and moderate after noon clear. I was getting in straw out of the stack in to the barn. John was drawing wood. Mahlon Gibson and his wife was here to day.