

August, 1928.

5 Sunday. Drizzly miserable day. Walter, Ella, Vernon, Mr. Hilliard and Grandpa Maurer went up to Clifford today and had their dinner and supper at Uncle Jake Maurer's

6 Monday. Damp, foggy day. Walter & Vernon took Dinal Lass, one of our Hereford cows up to Alvin this morning. Walter sold her to Borvoege Bender. We had the following company for tea - Mr. & Mrs. Frank Handel, Margaret Betty, Sonny & Constance, Merwin Smith all of Kitchener, Miss Gwen Baker of Toronto, Mrs. Fanny Reichert and Jean Hartung of Rochester, N. Y. and Mrs. Isaac Halle of Conestoga, Coleon, Edith Lois, Mrs. Kehl and Robert called in tonight on their way home from Port Elgin. Betty is staying for a few days.

7 Tuesday. Very warm day. The men plowed this morning and started cutting wheat this p.m. Ella & Betty were picking berries in Louis Miller's bush this afternoon
