OCTOBER THURSDAY 18 (291-74) 1923

Elsie quite sick. I went over to Bank for a while with Jim Simpson and went down to London Sweets and traded a walking plow with him for a horse and eleven hens. Dr Young in tonight. We set up nearly all night bathing Elsie's leg.

FRIDAY 19 (292-73)

Lovly warm day. Elsie look worse this morning. I got Dr Young and he advised us to get her to the Hospital as quickly as possible. We got ready and Dr Young took her up at noon. Maude and Elsie stayed and Dr Young and I came home after night very lonely tonight. Mrs Cockrill here

OCTOBER SATURDAY 20 (293-72) 1923

Fine day but turning cooler around Village most of the forenoon I helped Jim Simpson to dig a few potatoes and him and I went down to the rock cut at Will Somervills around home tonight. Elsie no better

SUNDAY 21 (294-71)

Fine day but dark and cold I got early and went to Kingston and stayed at the Hospital with Maude and Elsie until noon. I went up to Willies and had my dinner. I came back to Hospital and stayed until nearly dark. and then came home Addie and Gerald her for a while
