

July, 1930

18 Friday. Hot and sultry.

The men raked up the last of the hay and brought in a few jags making a total of 48 loads. Willard went up to Jim Weaver's and helped them draw in hay. Walter went to Elmira this forenoon.

19 Saturday. Hot day.

Walter & Vernon were scuffling and hoeing turnips. Willard came back from Jim's tonight. Esther & Ruth Miller visited Ella this afternoon.

20 Sunday. Hot day.

Otto & Norman Miller were our callers this morning. We all went to S.S. this p.m. and had company for supper - Mrs. Charles Koepke, Mr. & Mrs. John Zimmerman and son Milton.

21 Monday. Hot. The men were hoeing turnips this a.m. Our company for dinner - Mrs. Bowman, Irvin Schneider & Andrew Henderson. Irvin cultivated the summer fallow. This p.m. the boys started plowing sweet clover sod. Norman King spent the afternoon here and N.E. Miller & James
