

Thursday September 17th

Dad, Frank and Aunt Alice all come over this morning room for more than one on the stack, which was true with Tupper's flat sack to haul corn. I had a road cut I stuck around for awhile and then come home through but as the dew was very heavy and as they had to and spent the forenoon painting balloons for Mabel go to the mill besides in Tupper's for his sack, it was late Frank come over after Aunt Alice's rubbers and in the forenoon before we got started and we worked till stayed to dinner. We decided to go to town this afternoon after noon putting on the load, so they stayed to dinner as we had 14 dozen eggs to take down so we sent Frank much against Aunt Alice's approval as they had told over to the Lampkin to find out if she could keep Harry Enah they would be back for dinner Ina was here too. Bo the baby for us and to signal us if she could do washing, so Mary had quite a party. We all then went We drove in about three to find Frank, Truman Walker down to the factory with the corn but had to wait for some and Bert all gathered to perform the last sad rites to our load as things are jammed full down there. For poor old F. Harris she had just died from a wound is certainly a busy place just now. I walked home through she gave herself the other day when she got caught in Quis and talked to him for awhile so that it was about six when I got home. I drove Ina home about nine o'clock.

Friday September 18th

There was a heavy thunder storm early this morning so that every thing was too wet to do much to-day. Sam & Alan were thrashing over at Dove's this morning now Lembs for $6.00 apiece. as I went over to see if he needed any more help but there were plenty of men. He tried to induce me to help

Tom Ripens build the stack but it was a very dirty I spent the day painting and got the pricing cost.

Looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't

looking job so I told him I was afraid there wasn't