

Sun Jan 17th - Beautiful, clear, frosty day, Uncle and I went to Fisherville in the afternoon. Uncle, Aunt Nellie and I went to Thornhill in evening.

Mon Jan 20th - Fine day, moderately cold, I went up to Marys for a while in the afternoon. Uncle finished hauling his wood.

Tue Jan 21st - Fine morning, but rather stormy in afternoon
We were at home.

Wed Jan 22nd - Very stormy snowed and drifted all last night and to-day.

Thurs Jan 23rd - Fine day, but snow very deep, road not open untill about 4 o'clock, about 14 inches of snow
the greatest storm in a quarter of century with one exception that being Dec, 1895.

Fri Dec 24th - Fine day, quiet mild, Mr. Alf. Keiffers Sale.

Sat Dec 25th - Fine and mild, Uncle and I at Barnell mill in the morning then brought Mary and the children down, then took them home at night.

Sun Dec 26th - Snowing in the morning, then turned to rain mistling and dull all day.