

they drove to Ayton next day and I went home with them.

They finished the harvest about the 8th ult almost a month later than last year.

Sunday 10th

Attended morning service. In Mr. F's address he startled us by stating that he was going to leave this mission for one up in Mottawaseque.

He gave very good reasons for going, stating as one that this being an old