

Jan 27th 1874
Tuesday Stormy day cleaned up 162
Bush of Wheat in the A.M.
I was sick so that I didn't do anything.

28 Drew 4 loads of wood home
Stormed nearly all day
Mary and I went to the Station in the evening.
It is a most beautiful
evening.

29 Drew 4 loads to day and it began storming so that I had to quit. Pa went out to the Corners to Election

30 Pa went to the Mills today
He brought a side of cowhide and some sole leather. Beautiful day. Went to singing school in the evening. Had a pretty good time.
The thermometer stood 42

Sat. Finished drawing home what wood we had cut. There is about 21 cords. Pleasant day but cold in the A.M.
moderated in the P.M.

February 1st 1874
1 Rev Mr Slater preached
The day was pleasant but very cold.

2 Very cold day. The thermometer stood 42 degrees below zero.
Took Rosa up to the Station
to go to Brockville. Fine all day.

3 Had Henry Rathwell chopping
today. It has been chopped & cold Stormed a little nearly all day.
Getting warmer.
De Melville Putnam was buried today. H. Rose
