TUES. DEC. 27, 1898

Wea.

I rose and made a fire we then had breakfast, I attended to the house work, and then I was busy ripping down an old coat, to turn it and make Lane's one, as it is a pretty good one.

WEDNESDAY 28

Wea.

I rose again and after breakfast I attended to the housework and then Mrs Linscheer wanted me to drive her to Brampton, it was 4 degrees below zero, I called at Mr Hobbes to get some medicine for George, we were late as the roads were bad.
