

Camden Gore April. 1884

Tue Apr 15th cloudy fore noon wet, a fine rain which was much needed for the wheat. I was splitting stove wood in the lead, John was plowing when it did not rain. Anne not suffering quite so much to day.

Wed Apr 16th cloudy and misting and snow most of the day. went up to Florence for medicine for Anne she is a little better to day. Old Uncle Thomas Tiffin was buried to day. the roads are quite sloppy. Thu Apr 17th cloudy. Walter and I sawing stove wood part of the day. John was plowing Anne no better.

Fri Apr 18th clear part of the day pleasant. I and Walter was sawing stove wood most of the day. commenced to sow oats in the after noon. John cultivating fore part of the day latter part harrowing.

Sat Apr 19th cloudy and cool. finished sowing oats in the field East of the barns this fore noon, after noon fixing fence John finished harrowing the oats. Anne has been some easier to day.

Sun Apr 20th cloudy and cool.

Camden Gore April. 1884

Mon Apr 21st clear and cool. high wind from the North and cold. I was sowing peas. John harrowing the in. Anne rested a little better to day.

Tue Apr 22nd clear high wind and cold. was relaying some fence. John ~~was~~ was plowing.

Wed Apr 23rd clear and pleasant. I was at the Spring show at Thamesville John was plowing.

Thu Apr 24th clear and cool. a fine day. I was sowing peas. John was harrowing Anne no better.

Fri Apr 25th clear and cool. finished sowing oats and peas and harrowed them in went over the river for some stakes and bar posts.

Sat Apr 26th clear and warm. I went up to Florence this fore noon for the Dr. Anne is worse. John took the old Bull to Thamesville we bagained him to Michael Mahony.

Sun Apr 27th cloudy part of the day a fine thunder shower. Anne no better.

Mon Apr 28th clear and pleasant. I went to Dresden with a grist and got ground.

Tue Apr 29th clear and cool. was setting up a gate and repairing fence when I could get away from the house. John Tiffin was here from British Columbia. Anne no better.

Wed Apr 30th clear and cool in the fore noon was working at the fence.