

- 19 Ad went J. Cooks and brought the 6 cows home from the Rain fine day
- 20 I went with the team to the funeral of ~~all Mrs. Armstrong~~ she was buried the house
- 21 sunny stormy all day wind snow and drift so that we did not let the cows out
- 22 fine day very cold Ad and Philo killed a yearling heifer to day I did not go out to look at them I've got home on the
- 23 Mr Miller a student preached this morning Mr Millard is very sick so that they have to sit up with him at night he spits up blood
- 24 Liza is at Mr Millards all day quite a thaw
- 25 Liza and her two Nies come from Delta. Rabson and two of John Armstrongs sons came on the Express this afternoon they went west in the morning train
- 26 I attended the school meeting it was largest school meeting I ever saw here the new part of the school house was full Hugh Mc Day was put in trustee there was 5 nominated there was a little shuffling all went of right
- 27 heavy rain most of the night and this morning Liza and her two Nies went away on the Niece for Delta Ad brought a load of grain home and he brought a ton of shavings from the station half of each we are mixing them for the cows
- 28 Ad carried a lot of the oats B Barley out of the old granary to the New & the shovels & bran in the old granary have frost last night
- 29 Ad cut some dead trees in the bush for wood this forenoon

- Mr Mc Feerson preached this evening a student Rev J M Millard is confined to his bed he is not able to sit up even in the bed some one sits up with him every night
- 31 we got a telegram this morning that old Mr Highcock is dead and that he will be buried tomorrow at ten o'clock Ad Philo & I went to