

Friday 28 November

- 28 It is a most beautiful day the sun shone forth in all its splendor. Working in the woods had John Street helping us.
The school inspector gave us a lecture in the evening and it passed off pleasantly.
29 Pleasant day. Working in the woods. John was helping us.
Stormed in the evening.
I love Miss Maitland.
30 Pa preached. Mr Slater was away to Almonte to a church opening.
It was a beautiful day.
S. School pretty well attended.
Beautiful day but awful cold. Hung and I was shaw-ing out cooper stuff
had about 5 1/2 cords.
Snow is about a foot deep.

Dec.

December 2nd 1873

- 2 Cold and stormy but moderated towards night.
Butchered 2 hogs. One weighed 340 and 346
Total 686 lbs. Raining.
3 Thawing, and raining some.
Threshing at Uncle Harman's.
Henry went to the Falls with 16 bush of wheat - and sold it for $1.20 per bushel.
4 Thawing. The snow is all gone. I went up to H. to finish threshing but the corn blew so that we didn't thresh. There has been a great deal of damage done with the wind today.
several barns and houses
unroofed and damaged.
Cold and rough. Went to the Station and got 5 lbs of nails.
