1887
Dec 1 To did nothing to day take care of the horses 2 To drew some dung to the little field
3 Do Do Do Do
4 Rev'd Mr Millard had the communion here 5 it was a good attendance for the weather and 6 a darkish sorrowful day To ploughed in the East field we want to 7 that part of it plowed it is three North & South 8 To finished that part and plowed the head land along the side of the ditch 9 To drew dung to the little field 2 loads from the back of the Constable with the waggon the rest on the Slaugh from the yard where it was piled up 10 To drew dung from the yard to the little field with the Slaugh fine warm day rain most of the day To split some for me the wood shed rain was very heavy in the afternoon 11 Revd Mr Millard preached this afternoon Ad got 12 To piled or rather shovelled up some of the dung home from Rev
Dear to day in the Barnyard and let the water off the yard 13 Ad went to Brockvill on the mixed as a Jury man Ad got 14 To shovelled up some of the dung in the yard and home from the Jury drew 2 loads with the old Slaugh and 1 with Waggon to 15 To drew 1 load of dung to garden & 1 of the ho dung to the Rucherbe this forenoon Storm the afternoon Snow and rain 16 To drew dung to the North field East of the wheat it is Slow work 17 Do Do Do Do Do Do
18 Revd Mr Millard preached this evening 19 Ad and To drew dung into to the garden from yard and behind the New Barn fine day Mrs Dean 20 we killed a yearling heifer this forenoon To died last night at half past dung from the old Stable to the north 9 o'clock last night in the afternoon Sunset + + Ad is at Mr Dean 21 Stormy Snow and wind this morning 7 o'clock fine day after Mrs Dean was buried Anson church the Body was carried from the house to the church

1887 21
Dec tion and from the come on the Yard from the 22
23
Some corn
Some from Husband on the mixed 25