To love our enemies

LUKE

To know of his people

your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

22 Repose ye in that day, and leap for joy, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

23 But were unto you that are rich for ye have received your consolation.

24 Now unto you that are poor, and ye shall not be judged, condemn not, and ye shall be forgiven: unto you, and it shall be given down, and shaketh together into your bosom. For with that ye shall be measured to you again.

25 And he spake a parable unto them: (but the blind lead the blind) shall they not both fall into the ditch?

26 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.

27 And why beholdest thou that is but peradventure not the beam that is in thine own eye?

28 Eldest, how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull them out of thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Those hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

29 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

30 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

31 But love ye your enemies, and ye shall be perfect, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall not be judged: for he loveth him that loveth him that loveth him.

32 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again: and your reward shall be great, and ye shall not be judged: for he loveth him that loveth him that loveth him.

33 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again: and your reward shall be great, and ye shall not be judged: for he loveth him that loveth him that loveth him.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again: and your reward shall be great, and ye shall not be judged: for he loveth him that loveth him that loveth him.
