TUESDAY 16

1874

Raining lightly most of last night and smartly all forenoon. Commenced cutting the rye for feeding the cattle, it is just past the blossom and would average nearly 5 ft in height. Working some in the garden at transplanting melons and cucumbers. In the lower bush splitting some maple logs. Raining again tonight.

WEDNESDAY 17

Drove to Brampton this morning and sold to K. C. & Co 11 bush of spring wheat at $1.15. Father went to Dr. Patullo for advice and medicine, he having been sick for a week past. Was grading and leveling the road down the Etobicoke hill. Spent evening reading Carpenter's Comic Readings.

THURSDAY 18

1874

Working in the woods, sawing and splitting some fallen trees into cordwood and rails. Doing general job work these days such as, pulling bars straightening up the fences destroying the currant-worms and doing a little in the garden. A fine letter of eight Berkshire arrived today. — — — —

FRIDAY 19

Was horse hoeing the corn it is doing finely, 4 to 6 inches high. Spent rest of the day, remodelling the flower beds in front-yard and hauling leaf mould from the woods for them. Viney and I drove to Brampton this evening. At Choir Practice and had a good sing. Mailed "Proques" to R. D. Nichols & Banner to Uncle Thomas Harrington.
